God uses broken things.
It takes broken soil to produce a crop,
broken clouds to give rain,
broken grain to give bread,
broken bread to give strength.
It is the broken alabaster box that gives forth perfume.
It is Peter, weeping bitterly,
who returns to greater power than ever.
Vance Havner

Dear Friends

In the week ahead – please, please continue to pray for the aspect of the Nepal/Tibet tragedy which most affects you.

To date, nearly 14,000 bodies have been recovered – over 5000 people are still missing.

Imagine – for a minute – one of your loved ones is still trapped there – and pray accordingly.

We ask God to comfort those who mourn – Hold them, Lord!

We pray divine protection over all involved in this dangerous rescue work – and we pray especially – Lord Jesus – that You will reveal any who are still alive, but trapped, and restore them to safety.

We pray for the massive task of restoration – and meeting the needs of thousands who have lost everything ...

And especially, Lord God – we ask that You provide peace and closure for the thousands of folk who are trapped in the ‘hell’ of not knowing! Release them from anguish!
